How to begin

1. Go to the JobAccess homepage.
2. Click on “Secure Login” at the top left-hand of the home page.
3. This will display the JobAccess Secure page.

The screenshot shows the JobAccess homepage. At the top, there is a purple navigation bar with links for "Secure login", "Other Languages", "Emergency contacts", "Complaints or report abuse", and "Saved Items". Below this is a white header area with the Australian Government logo, the "Job Access" logo (with the tagline "Driving disability employment"), a search bar, and the phone number "1800 464 800" with the text "Monday to Friday, 9am-7pm AEDT / AET". A dark blue navigation bar contains links for "Home", "People with disability", "Employers", "Service providers", "Downloads", "News", "Search", and "Stories". Below the navigation bar is a "Listen" button. The main content area features the heading "Welcome to JobAccess - your guide to disability employment" and the subtext "Access advice, information and funding to support people with disability, employers and service providers." There is an "About us" button with a right-pointing arrow.

The screenshot shows the JobAccess Secure page. At the top, there is the Australian Government logo and the "Job Access" logo (with the tagline "Driving disability employment"). Below this is a dark grey header with the text "JobAccess Secure". The main content area has the heading "Information" and the text "To access this secure site please click on one of links below:". There is a list of four links:

- Employer/Individual/Self-Employed/ADE, click here to Login/New Registration
- DES and Workforce Australia Service Provider, using Digital Identity myGovID, click here to Login
- Department of Social Services user, click here to Login
- Department of Employment and Workplace Relations user, click here to Login

Below the list is the heading "Keeping your access secure" and a list of three bullet points:

- Never share your login ID or password with anyone – this includes work colleagues or the person for whom the application is being made.
- Never allow anyone else to use the JobAccess site while you are logged on – while you are logged onto the site, you are personally responsible for actions carried out under your log in.
- Make sure that the computer that you are using is protected from viruses.

Below this is the heading "Cancelling your access when it is no longer required" and the text "You are the only one who can access the applications attached to your login ID. When you leave the organisation that you are currently working for, or the role changes and you no longer require access, you must:". There is a list of two bullet points:

- Complete all pending applications, as far as practicable, and
- Notify the JobAccess adviser on 1800 464 800 of the change in circumstance and that any active applications are transferred to someone else within your organisation.

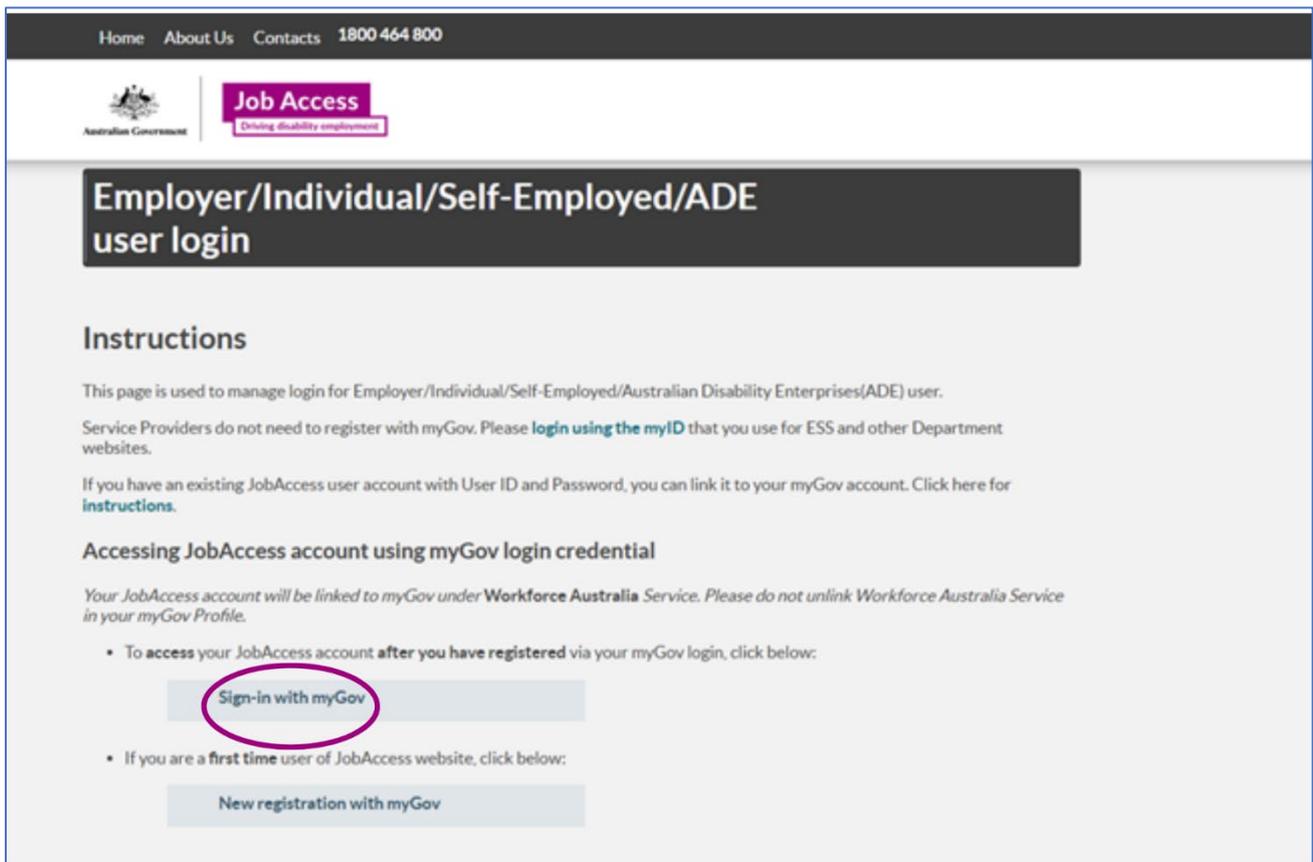

If you have applied before

If you have previously submitted an EAF application using your myGov account, click 'Sign-in with myGov and log in with your myGov sign in details to access JobAccess secure website.

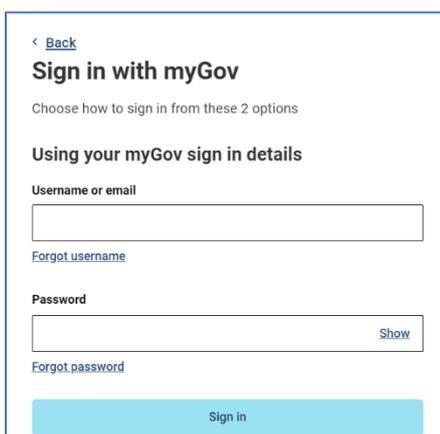

Once you logged in, you can:

- Lodge a new EAF application. See Lodging an application within in this document for instruction.
- Upload supporting/additional document for your existing EAF application.

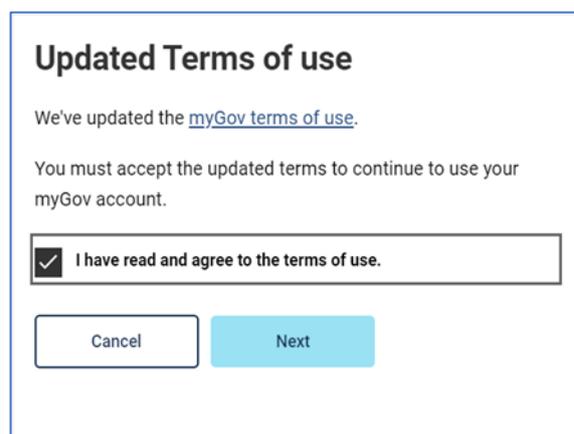

NOTE: If you receive an error stating that 'you are not authorised to use this site', you need to register as a new user. If so, see the New User within this document for instructions.

The screenshot shows the Job Access website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'About Us', 'Contacts', and the phone number '1800 464 800'. Below this is the Australian Government logo and the 'Job Access' logo with the tagline 'Driving disability employment'. The main heading is 'Employer/Individual/Self-Employed/ADE user login'. Underneath, there is an 'Instructions' section. The instructions state that the page is used to manage login for Employer/Individual/Self-Employed/Australian Disability Enterprises(ADE) user. It also mentions that Service Providers do not need to register with myGov and should use their myID. A link is provided for users with existing JobAccess accounts to link them to their myGov accounts. The 'Accessing JobAccess account using myGov login credential' section contains two bullet points. The first bullet point says 'To access your JobAccess account after you have registered via your myGov login, click below:' and has a button labeled 'Sign-in with myGov' circled in purple. The second bullet point says 'If you are a first time user of JobAccess website, click below:' and has a button labeled 'New registration with myGov'.

The screenshot shows the 'Sign in with myGov' form. It has a '< Back' link at the top left. The title is 'Sign in with myGov'. Below the title, it says 'Choose how to sign in from these 2 options'. The first option is 'Using your myGov sign in details'. Under this option, there are two input fields: 'Username or email' and 'Password'. There are links for 'Forgot_username' and 'Forgot_password' below each field. A 'Show' button is next to the password field. At the bottom of the form is a 'Sign in' button.

The screenshot shows the 'Updated Terms of use' form. The title is 'Updated Terms of use'. Below the title, it says 'We've updated the myGov terms of use.' The next line says 'You must accept the updated terms to continue to use your myGov account.' There is a checkbox with a checkmark and the text 'I have read and agree to the terms of use.' Below this are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Next'.

Supported Wage System (SWS)

Eligible people with disability can choose to access a reliable productivity-based wage assessment to determine fair pay for fair work. The Supported Wage System pays for independent assessors to conduct these wage assessments. This means that, as an employer, there is no cost to you. You may also be eligible to receive a one-off payment to help the cost of employing a new worker with a disability.

If you do not receive a 'Success message' with an application ID number, your application did not save correctly.

For help, please contact JobAccess on 1800 464 800 or email <mailto:jobaccess@genu.org.au>

Thank you for your application.

Accessibility

If you are deaf or have a hearing or speech impairment, you can contact JobAccess via National Relay Service \(NRS\).

If you need an interpreter, please use the Translating and Interpreting Service \(TIS National\).

Do not order or purchase items prior to receiving written approval. JobAccess cannot backdate reimbursement.

The EAF is a reimbursement fund; we can only reimburse approved items after receiving valid proof of purchase.

Instructions for claiming reimbursement are included in EAF Guidelines, and in your approval letter.
